

Animator Role Description

We are excited to announce that we are looking for a self-driven, keen, team player that will work as an animator on in Marketing and Media directorate. This post is currently pre event but there may be an opportunity to widen the scope of the work to during and post event depending on your creative ideas. Your work will be the “face” of the Jamboree encompassing the fun and excitement of the event. We are searching for someone who can fully embrace the role, to apply we would like you to have the following key skills: -

- Animate!
- Creativity
- Artistic talent
- A knack for storytelling
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work under pressure
- Ability to work with other directorate teams/team members to achieve the best outcome

The candidate will have examples of previous work that they can submit as part of the application. This doesn't matter if the work is professional or from other projects that the applicant has worked on.

Please note this is a voluntary role.